GERMAN COURSES FOR ADULTS

The Goethe-Instituts in Germany offer a full range of courses, from general language and exam preparation courses to programs geared to doctors, lawyers and other professionals. We cover all individual needs and every language level. You can select the program that best matches your needs and current knowledge of German from our wide selection of intensive, evening and morning courses. You can choose from group courses as well as individual instruction with flexible starting dates.

WITH EXTRACURRICULAR ACTIVITIES.

During your course, you can discover Germany through our exciting and diverse program of cultural and recreational activities. Our attractive selection of evening and weekend activities includes theater, concerts and festivals, day trips and much more.

WITH ACCOMMODATION.

We know how important it is to feel at home when learning a language in new surroundings. That's why we make the option available to book accommodation through us, for example in one of our guesthouses.

YOUTH CAMPS

In an international group, children and teens from all over the world spend their school holidays together, improving their German skills through fun-filled activities. These two-week and three-week courses are available for various language levels and age groups. Our youth camps are open to learners nine years of age and older. Along with the many youth camps, we also have a language learning camp for young adults aged 18 to 21.

WITH ACCOMMODATION AND LEISURE PROGRAM.

The participants are accommodated in youth hostels. The supervised extracurricular program includes plenty of variety and is packed with sports and enjoyable group activities.

MANY TOPICS. ONE FOCUS: GERMAN!

We offer regular and theme-based camps such as:

- Summer Camp Classic
- Uni Camp
- Green Future Camp
- City Camp
- Exam Camp
- Kids Camp

EXAMINATIONS AND CERTIFICATES

Whatever your reasons for learning German – as a professional qualification or as preparation for university studies in Germany – our certification system offers exams at all levels.

WITH A EUROPEAN STANDARD.

The German examinations of the Goethe-Institut are based on the levels of the Common European Reference Framework for Languages (CEFR), from A1 to C2.

RECOGNIZED AROUND THE WORLD.

Our exams are internationally recognized and are accepted as qualifications by many employers and educational institutions. The Goethe-Institut's standard language examinations for adults are assessed by the Association of Language Testers in Europe.
